

Community News

Welcome to May at Mural Apartments. As we head into a new month, we're excited to get to know our residents even more and continue building a connected community. We're now accepting Pet of the Month submissions—please email a photo of your pet to mural@northcoastliving.com along with their name and short bio for a chance to be featured in next month's newsletter!

May Resident Event

Pastries & Treats - May 8th

Pastries & Treats, May 8 at 7:30 AM in the lobby—your favorite Bakery Nouveau goodies without the weekend line. Come downstairs, grab something warm and delicious, and start your morning with us (while supplies last).

What Residents are Saying

Nadeen N.

"We've been searching for apartments for months, and after seeing so many places, it all started to feel overwhelming.....until we toured Mural Apartments in West Seattle with Fahd.

What truly made the difference for us was Fahd. From the moment we walked in, he gave us such a warm, informative, and genuine tour. He took the time to answer every question, walked us through all the details, and made the entire process feel smooth and stress-free. You can tell he really cares about the people he's helping, not just filling a unit.

Fahd guided us through everything from A to Z, and honestly, he's the reason we knew this would be our next home. If you're considering Mural Apartments, definitely ask for him. You won't regret it!"

Local Feature

Bakery Nouveau

A true West Seattle staple. Bakery Nouveau has been doing it right since 2006—family-owned, craft baking and chocolate-making where tradition meets innovation. Their chocolate croissants are next level with a shattering golden crisp on the outside, soft, buttery layers inside, and house-made chocolate in every bite. We're excited to be serving Bakery Nouveau at our resident event on May 8—come enjoy a local favorite with us.

Live Well

Mental Health Awareness Month

May is Mental Health Awareness Month, and while West Seattle has so much to offer, even the most active lifestyles benefit from a moment to unplug. This month, we're inviting you to practice a simple digital detox—protecting your peace by creating space away from screens.

Self-care at Mural is about finding balance in the rhythm of the neighborhood. Think a quiet morning with coffee on your balcony, a phone-free walk along Alki Beach, or time spent in The Junction fully present with the people around you.

If you're looking for a deeper way to reset this month, explore local wellness spots and carve out time to reconnect with yourself.
