What Residents are Saying

Melisa L.

"The new owners/management moved in virtually at the same time I did and were unaware that a move-in was on the horizon. So.... They are still settling in and it may be too soon to say much. However, I would note that A.B in property management and Eddie in maintenance have been superstars - prompt and courteous. I can tell they are really listening when we are discussing an issue and Eddie especially has been great on follow-through."
