

Community News

November is a month of gratitude and appreciation, and we're feeling especially thankful for our incredible Mural team! Last month, our staff joined several other North Coast Living properties for Team Building Appreciation Day in Seattle—a full day of laughter, connection, and celebration. We took in the breathtaking views from the Space Needle, toured the stunning Chihuly Garden and Glass exhibit, and shared a delicious lunch at Serious Pie. The Escape Room brought out our competitive (and hilarious) sides before wrapping up the day with a visit to our own Skyglass community and a lively dinner at Yard House.

Welcome To The Team

Antonio Santos

Meet Antonio Santos, our incredible Property Porter here at Mural Apartments. As a porter, Antonio helps keep our community beautiful, welcoming, and well-maintained—making sure every space feels like home for our residents. His favorite quote perfectly sums up his mindset: “Believe you can and you’re halfway there.” At Mural, we believe people like Antonio are the fabric of our community.

What Residents are Saying

Melisa L.

"The new owners/management moved in virtually at the same time I did and were unaware that a move-in was on the horizon. So.... They are still settling in and it may be too soon to say much. However, I would note that A.B in property management and Eddie in maintenance have been superstars - prompt and courteous. I can tell they are really listening when we are discussing an issue and Eddie especially has been great on follow-through."

Phoenicia West Seattle

Weeknight dinner plans, sorted. Just steps from Mural, @phoeneciawestseattle has been serving Seattle for over 50 years — a beloved family-owned spot now run by sisters Nadia and Sonya. Their Lebanese-Mediterranean fusion menu brings warmth, flavor, and community to the heart of West Seattle (don't miss the saffron pasta.)
