ISSUE NO. 11 • SEPTEMBER 2026

Fall Is Nearing.

September is here, bringing Labor Day weekend, back-to-school season, and the start of that cozy fall feeling in West Seattle. As we soak up the last warm days of summer, there's plenty happening around the neighborhood—from Sunday farmers market strolls and local events to more fun right here at Mural. We're looking forward to a great month ahead and another chance to connect with our community!

September Local Event

Looking to meet more people in West Seattle? Whether you're new to the neighborhood, work from home, or just want to connect with your neighbors, Camp West hosts Social Hour every Thursday from 4–6 PM. Think of it as the Junction's living room—a casual place to grab a drink and meet someone new. No tickets, RSVP, name tags, or forced icebreakers.

Just look for the Social Hour sign at the bar and say hello. The bartenders can help make introductions, especially if you're coming solo. Everyone 21+ is welcome, and on second Thursdays, Social Hour is a great way to kick off the West Seattle Art Walk from 5–8 PM.

"I recently moved into the Mural Apartments, and my experience so far has been excellent. The leasing team made the entire move-in process smooth. Fahd and Alison, in particular, were incredibly helpful. They were friendly, responsive, and always happy to answer my questions. Thanks to their professionalism and support, settling into my new apartment was much easier.

The location is another major plus. California Avenue is just a short walk away, offering a great selection of shops, cafés, and bakeries. It makes it easy to grab a coffee, run errands, or simply enjoy the neighborhood without needing a car."

OUT IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Fall Wine Walk

Friday, September 18, 2026

Raise your glass—the Fall Wine Walk is back in the West Seattle Junction on Friday, September 18, from 5–9 PM! Sip your way through the neighborhood as 25+ Pacific Northwest wineries pair up with local merchants for an evening of wine tasting, shopping, and exploring the Junction. Your $40 ticket includes 14 one-ounce tastings, a West Seattle Wine Walk bottle tote, and a keepsake wine glass. Check in, grab your tasting map, and enjoy discovering new regional favorites with friends. Additional tasting tickets will also be available at the event.
